ROCKLAND MAN INDICTED ON CHARGES HE ROBBED CELL PHONE STORE

BROCKTON – Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz has announced that Nicholas Marrow (DOB: 8/31/90) of Rockland, was indicted today by the Plymouth County Grand Jury on one count each of Armed, Masked Robbery, Armed Assault with Intent to Rob and Assault with a Dangerous Weapon.

On February 4, 2015, a male wearing dark pants, a dark blue hooded sweatshirt, a white ski mask and gloves entered the Metro PCS store on Market Street in Rockland. The male passed a note to the clerk that read: "I have a gun give me all the money." The suspect then pulled out a white shopping bag and reached over the counter for the clerk to place the cash drawer money into the bag. The suspect then fled the store on foot.

Rockland Police reviewed surveillance video and were able to identify various pieces of clothing and video from a school close by that showed a male wearing similar clothing, crossing the parking lot and entering an apartment building after the robbery. Police posted flyers around the apartment building with pictures taken from store surveillance cameras. Several tipsters identified the person in the photos to be Marrow, a resident in the building.

A subsequent attempted robbery at a second cell phone store in Rockland on April 8, 2015 led police to identify Nicholas Marrow as the assailant in both crime scenes. In that incident, a slim male wearing a hat over his face, a brown sweatshirt, black sweat pants and carrying a black and gray backpack entered the store and passed a note to the clerk that read: "There is a gun in my pocket. Put the money in the bag now!" The assailant pointed a gun at the clerk and attempted to take the cash drawer but the drawer was empty and the suspect fled. Police obtained a search warrant for Marrow's apartment and car where investigators found clothing, footwear, gloves and a Black Ops Pellet Gun in Marrow's bedroom.

Marrow will be arraigned at a later date in Brockton Superior Court.

Assistant District Attorney Shanan Buckingham is prosecuting the case, which was investigated by Rockland Police.
